Motorlease Corp., in Farmington, Conn., one of the nation's oldest and largest independent leasing companies, celebrated its 60th anniversary with a reception held at Tower Ridge Country Club Simsbury April 15.

"We are excited to celebrate our 60th anniversary surrounded by our committed employees and our loyal customers," Jack Leary, president of Motorlease Corp., told attendees. "This is a competitive business, and we are truly thankful to everyone who has played a role in keeping Motorlease on top for 60 years now."

Connecticut Gov. M. Jodi Rell proclaimed August 15 "The Motorlease Corp. Day" in the state, in recognition of the lessor's milestone anniversary.

"On behalf of the state of Connecticut, I, M. Jodi Rell, governor, take great pleasure in congratulating The Motorlease Corp. in recognition of its 60th anniversary," wrote Gov. Rell. "For 60 years, the owners and staff of The Motorlease Corp. have served the Greater Hartford area and the state of Connecticut with great honor and distinction. The Motorlease Corp. has made significant contributions to the service industry, and our state is proud to be the home of such a vital member of our community. The owners and staff of this company have earned an outstanding reputation for their hard work and dedication to service. I commend the three generations of owners and staff of The Motorlease Corp. and would like to congratulate you on this milestone."
